Field Day Announcement

September 30, 2008

Davidson County Soil Conservation District cordially invites you to a free Field Day at the Hermitage (home of Andrew Jackson) on Tuesday September 30. Registration begins at 8:15 a.m.

This free event will take place on the Hermitage farm located in Nashville. Tours begin at 9:00 a.m. and will showcase the recent Best Management Practices installed to aid in improving water quality, soil erosion, enhance wildlife and increase crop production.

Experts from TWRA, NRCS, UT Extension and TDA will be on hand to guide you through the process of installing BMP'S such as: Livestock exclusion, Prescribed Grazing, Alternative Water System with Heavy Use Area, Native Grass & Field Borders, No Till Crops and New Precision Equipment using GPS.

Anyone interested in learning about the advantages of these BMP'S and possible funding assistance is encouraged to attend.

Attendees are encouraged to register by September 10 for our lunch count. Contact the Office at 615- 880-2030 or email carol.edwards@nashville.gov.

*Agenda available on our web site:
